Extreme Dimensions, Inc. is recognized across the globe as one of the premier specialty manufacturers in the industry. With over 7,000 products in our catalog, Extreme Dimensions, Inc. became the original manufacturer of all-terrain vehicles in North America with distribution throughout the Americas, Australia, Europe, and Asia. We have been proudly headquartered in the United States since our inception in 2002, and our product lines of ATVs, utility vehicles, and all-terrain products continue to thrive and grow. With a strong dedication to quality, value, and customer service, we consistently exceed industry standards. Our focus is always to meet the needs of the automotive and truck markets.

To help ensure our ability to provide superior customer service, our U.S. Headquarters have expanded to a 100,000 square foot distribution center and our extreme manufacturing facility currently exceeds 200,000 square feet. Additionally, we employ over 300 people throughout the company to ensure industry-leading quality and customer service.

Extreme Dimensions distributes some of the most recognized specialty brands in the industry. Our off-road products offer the great joys of an recreational vehicle with increased durability. Our Utility Vehicle line exemplifies our dedication to quality and value by providing brands like Harbor Freight, and Sunranger, to help those among motor sports and industry professionals. For those who demand exceptional fitment and unmatched durability that outperform others we're proud to offer the Golden Rule.

When it comes to maintaining our reputation as an industry leader, we never rest. Team perfected even more of our brands revolutionizing the industry. And, we are an official distributor of four Fortune 500 motor specialty parts. Catering exclusively to some of the most recognized companies in the automotive industry, four Fortune 500 parts are offered to our customers at an exceptional price.

Here at Extreme Dimensions we are committed to continuing to set the industry standards. With over 10 years of experience, Extreme Dimensions has become the premier choice for aftermarket applications. Check back with us often for updates on our ever-expanding line of products, and promotions.
